

John A. Gupton College

Privacy Policy

We take your privacy seriously. The privacy policy supports the applicable laws required by the State of TN. John A. Gupton College and third party entities are utilized to support the security of our financial systems. The information collected from students/applicants are not released unless required to do so by law. Any information supplied through the John A. Gupton College website is maintained by the College and complies with all Federal, State, and College privacy laws, which include FERPA and HIPPA.

Information Collected

We collect personal information that you voluntarily provide to us when submitting a form requesting information. This could include your name, address, email address, telephone number, and prior educational background (name of institution, degree earned, etc.).

How do we use your personal information?

We use the information to communicate with you about our programs. We may also inform you of changes to the programs.

We do not disclose your personal information to a third party unless required to do so by law or any other government body.

Data Security

We are committed to protecting the security of your information. We believe we have appropriate physical and electronic procedures to secure your information and prevent an unauthorized incident. Only authorized employees will be given access to your information. However, no data transmission over the Internet can be guaranteed to be totally secure.